BUSINESS MEN TO DISCUSS GOOD ROADS' DAY MATTERS

Meeting Called for Thursday Night at the Public Library Rooms

DEFINITE PLANS TO BE LAID

Suggestions to be Made That Charleroi Observe Day as Clean-Up Day, As Well as Home Gardening Day—Citizens' Meeting Soon.

Plans for the observance here of Good Roads' day on May 26 will be considered by the Charleroi Business Men's Association at a meeting Thursday evening at the reading rooms of the Charleroi Library Association in the Odd Fellows' building. Together with this matter will be taken up that of the home gardening idea proposed by the Child Welfare circle.

The meeting will be the regular monthly meeting of the association, and will be called at 8:15 o'clock. Later, it is expected that a change will be made in the Business men's meetings, a plan to be adopted to have them earlier in evenings at an informal supper. This would mean that a supper would be served at each meeting and it is believed the plan would result in an increase in attendance.

Probably Good Roads day in Charleroi will be observed somewhat as a clean-up day within the town, as well as a home gardening day. Anyhow these suggestions will be advanced tomorrow night. After the Business Men's meeting will follow, in short order a citizens' meeting, at which time committees will be appointed and definite plans laid for the observance of the day.

A welcome song was sung by the school children as the opening of the program. Miss Velma Kibler played a violin solo, and Miss Henrietta Woodward gave a reading. The valedictorian was Velma Kibler. Clev, a member of the school board. The class yell was given and the school song was sung. The commencement marked the close of what has proven a successful term under the principalship of Prof. W. GRAND JURY NOTES NEED OF IMPROVEMENT AT COUNTY HOME IN REPORT TO JUDGE IRWIN

Work at May Term Finished and Inspections Are Made—Jury Reports Ideal Conditions at the Children's Home

Taking the same position as have other grand juries which have visited and inspected conditions at the County home, the present grand jury which finished its work Tuesday and was discharged with the thanks of the court, recommended that something be done at this institution. The grand jury reported to Judge R. W. Irwin that it found the home efficiently managed but that the management was handicapped in its duties and the inmates were subjected to undergoing unnecessary hardships owing to the crowded conditions at the home. The grand jury stated that in its opinion this condition should receive the consideration of the county officials.

This expression of the jury indicated that the jury favored a pending some money at the home and relieving the congestion there. It seems that the jury, since it acted unfavorably as to the proposed improvements of three new stretches of road, favors an expenditure by the county for improvements at the County home. The grand jury found upon its visit in the home, with only accommodations for 150, and that cots had to be placed in the corridors, which they were told, was in violation of the law. The poor board and county control recently acted favorably on a proposition to erect two wings at a cost not to exceed $50,000. It was necessary that the commissioners act favorably on the matter before anything could be done, but they have failed to do so. As to the Children's home, the grand jury reported that it found what it considered ideal conditions for an institution of this kind and commended those in charge.

WORKING NOW AT BATHING BEACH

Popular Innovation of Last Year to be Continued and Improved

NO DATE SET FOR OPENING

Only a few weeks more, and the bathing season will be opened in full blast at the Charleroi Bathing Beach which proved a successful innovation last year. No date has been set for the opening, but it will probably be at a guess, about the first of June, following the custom at seashore beaches.

At the instance of directors of the Bathing Beach association the beach is being put in the best of shape. Work has been started on cleaning up. In general appearance the beach will be the same as last year.

Plans for the conduct of the beach on a businesslike system are underway. The two houses, one for women and the other for men are being put in the best possible shape, and instructors are being advertised for to be in charge.

Canonsburg Lad Killed as He Drinks From Spring— Others With Him at Time

BOYS HAD FOLLOWED COUPLES

Trio of Young Men Were Watching Strolling Lovers and Had Stopped for Second When Bullet Fell—Young Bissell.

Shot down in cold blood while kneeling to drink at a spring, Bert Bissell, aged 18 years, residing at White Lawn Terrace a suburb of Canonsburg, died at 11:30 o'clock Tuesday night. The bullet from the revolver of his unseen assailant entered the boy's left side near the shoulder blade penetrating his heart. After his mortal injury, young Bissell staggered to his feet and walked a few yards held up by his companions and then fell dead.

The tragedy occurred Tuesday night in the hollow midway between Canonsburg and Houston. It is not known who fired the shot that killed young Bissell. It was done by one of two men who were seen but whose names are unknown.

Immediately following Bissell's death, Constable Rathbone of Houston was notified and hurried to the scene with his bloodhounds. Aided by many persons of the neighborhood, incensed at the tragic deed, the chase was begun and continued until 2 o'clock. The dogs found a trail but lost it again. A systematic search for the person or persons implicated is being conducted.

Bissell was not alone when shot. His brother and two boys named Mowhoney and Williams were with him.

A SOTHERS SEE US
In other states there is apprehension from the point of view of observers of the work of the Pennsylvania constabulary, and comment has in various cases been raised. The Boston Transcript has the following to say:

One of the best things done for Pennsylvania by the erratic and much misunderstood Pennypacker, sometime governor of the state, was to create the Pennsylvania mounted constabulary. The force was organized in 1906 under the direction of Major John C. Groome, a man socially prominent in Philadelphia, with a natural gift for administration and an effective chief for such a force. He still remains its superintendent.

The troop numbers only 200 men, but it has handled unruly rioters to the number of 170,000 in more than one tight corner with an ease and despatch that have won for the force a truly worldwide reputation.

Of the men themselves it can be truly said that they are a picked lot.
Ninety per cent of them have served in the regular United States army; most of them in the cavalry arm.
Several are ex-soldiers of the British army; there are troopers who have fought the Boxers in China, the Boers in South Africa, the Spaniards in Cuba, the Micrones in the Philippines.
The men are selected for courage, physical endurance, military experience and personal decency and character. There is not one "poser" in the force. In Philadelphia a photographer asked one of the men to draw his pistol and aim it at an imaginary rioter. The trooper grinned and turned away. The trooper would have made a good picture, for in avoiding the brass buttons, the constabulary have become, unconsciously, the most picturesque body of horsemen that ever responded to "boots and saddles."

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS.

Although Pennsylvanians have been slow to realize it, good roads benefit no individuals more than those engaged in agricultural pursuits. The most important requisite for a farmer is the ability to market the products he raises. Whether he be engaged in market gardening or whether his billowy acres swell with the wheat harvest, it matters not a bit to him how great may be his crops if he cannot get them to a place where he can exchange them for money or in barter; therefore good roads are of vital interest to the farmer.

When Pennsylvania laid out her elaborate system of state highways whereby the more thickly populated centers were connected it was impossible to pass the front gate of every farmer necessarily some had to be left on the county roads. Now, unless these roads are in good condition the farmer is the loser. The state highway department cannot do more than endeavor to maintain the state highway system. In many cases the counties and townships have not given proper attention to their roads.

Governor Brumbaugh's proclamation for a "State-wide Good Roads Day" on Wednesday, May 26, should arouse an answering echo from every farmer. When all is said and done he will be the greatest gainer.

If he does his share in contributing his labor and that of his employees, his wagons, his horses, his automobiles and his tools, he will gain not only the thanks of his community, but also the satisfaction of knowing that he has created himself a well-to-do neighbor.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Lincoln, the noted actor, the president of the Lincoln club, the first in the list of the most recent issues of the Lincoln club, the following Lincoln story:

But here is a new Lincoln story, one of the darkest hours of the Civil War, a man with business "very important" got past the doorkeeper on the plea that his errand could only be explained to the President in person.
There was mischief on foot—the capital was in danger!

The gentleman had a harelip—he had it with him—and he duly opened up his vocal batteries.
Lincoln, very weary, listened with patience, and as he listened a half-quizzical smile played across his sober face. Lincoln had discovered that the plot to blow up the Capitol had no basis except in this man's mental vacuum; and he forthwith rightly suspected that all the man wanted was a five-dollar bill.

Now Lincoln could have done one of several things. He might have called an aide and had the fellow ejected, or he might have compromised with him for a dollar. But Lincoln cast around in his mind as to whether he would send this man to Seward and give Seward a good laugh and send him to Stanton, who had no small sense of humor, and who was given to making life very grievous for his chief.

Lincoln decided that Stanton was the party who should be punished, and so he wrote this note:
Dear Stanton:
The bearer of this message is a very dear, personal friend of mine.
He has discovered a dastardly plot of the enemy to blow up the Capitol.
It is highly necessary that you should give him your closest attention and act promptly as your good judgment dictates.

Yours
A. Lincoln.
The note of course got the strange-er into Stanton's presence. Stanton read the letter and sent for three secret service men. The doors were locked, the keyholes stuffed and the man with the harelip was requested to divulge the plot. It took Stanton about fifteen minutes to discover what Lincoln had gathered in a moment.
Stanton then wrote the following letter:

Washington, Jan. 5th, 1864.
Dear Mr. President:
I have given your dear, close personal friend fifteen minutes of my valuable time. And if you ever send me another man like this and he does not blow up the Capitol, I will.
Sincerely yours,
Edwin M. Stanton

A stunning specimen of the Princeton Tiger was fondly holding the hand of the pretty little Vassar lass, and at last he approached the leading subject courageously. "I have carefully studied the matter from the scientific point of view and am thoroughly convinced that we are fitted one for the other."

"Please explain yourself," said she looking up at him with her large, bright eyes.
"It is simply this," he continued,
"according to science, which is the only way to approach the subject.
You see, you are light and I am dark.
You are short and I am tall. You are small and I am large and powerful.
You are sprightly, vivacious; I am somewhat sober and phlegmatic. In short, we are opposites and opposites should marry."
"Yes," she replied; "but there are exceptions to all such rules, and I know of one in this case that is sufficient. I cannot marry you."
"In what respect is this exception made?" he demanded excitedly.
"You see," she smiled up at him again. "you are like me in this: I could never earn my own living."

ROAD MEASURES ARE DISAPPROVED BY JURY

Grand Jury Does Not Favor Building of Three New Roads or General Change to Concrete With Concrete.

The grand jury on Tuesday disapproved the proposed improvement of three stretches of road in the county, acted favorably on one proposition to change the improvement from brick to concrete and unfavorably to four other petitions to change from brick to concrete. The action of the grand jury followed a secret session of Monday. The commissioners advised the change from brick to concrete on four roads on the ground that concrete would be more durable and less expensive to maintain.

The three roads turned down, believing the roads that it was proposed to improve were the McPherson-Boyce road in Cecil township, the Avella-Manchester road and the Avella-Independence road, estimated at respectively $38,187.10, $27,038 and $27,117.50, with brick improvement.

BOY DIES FROM WOUND CAUSED BY RUSTY NAIL

Lad Suffered Injury Three Weeks Ago
Did Not Seem to Suffer Until Sunday When He Was Hastened To The Hospital.

Frank, the four-year-old child of John Doney of Monessen died Monday night in the McKeesport hospital as a result of running a nail in his foot three weeks ago. He and his little brother had a home with Mrs. Jacob Peder, near Suterville since their mother was drowned two years ago in the Monongahela river a short distance below here while attending a picnic.

The wound from the nail appeared to heal and no ill effect was noticed until Sunday, when the boy became very ill. He was taken to the hospital Sunday evening. The funeral will be held at Monessen on account of the mother being buried at Grand-

BOY RUN DOWN AND AUTOIST IS ATTACKED

Daisytown Lad in Critical Condition From Accident of Monday—Crowd Collects and Beats up Victor Hill, Driver of Car.

Philip Bogdon, aged five years, stepson of Alexander Stack of Daisy-town, is in a critical condition at his home at Daisytown as the result of being run down by an automobile while playing in the road near his home.

He sustained a broken collar bone two broken ribs and a severely cut up face. Little hope is entertained for his recovery.

The car which struck him was being run Monday evening by Victor Hill, who runs a hack between Coal Centre and Daisytown. Slowing down Hill returned to where the boy was lying, but before he could secure medical aid a crowd had congregated. Enraged at the accident the crowd attacked Hill, who was unable to make his escape and was so severely beaton about the body and face that he is housed up at his home at Red Hill, a short distance beyond Daisytown.
The Daisytown police were called, but Hill managed to make his escape before their arrival.

Smith performed the ceremony at the Presbyterian manse. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. J.
H. Robertson of Norfolk, Va., Mrs.
Robertson being a sister of the bride.
The bride is the daughter of Capt.
and Mrs. James T. Nutt, of North Charleroi and a well known young woman here. The groom is a sergeant in the United States Marine corps stationed at Portsmouth. He is a son of the county coroner of Tuscarawas county, Ohio.

The use of Gold Dust is an economy. There can be no waste when you use the exact small quantity required for each specific purpose. It is at once taken up by hot or cold water, forming the perfect cleansing solution.

The active principle of Gold Dust is a valuable antiseptic cleansing agent.

Use Gold Dust not only for washing dishes, but for washing bathtubs and bathroom fixtures, cleaning oil mops, cleaning and freshening linoleum and oilcloth, cleaning and brightening pots, pans and cooking utensils, giving luster to glassware—for every cleaning and brightening purpose.

Maxwell

"The Wonder Car"

Men who have driven other makes of cars for years—Men who have experimented—Men who have been "stung"—now drive Maxwells.

Right in this town—and all over the country—are men and women who have been driving different makes of cars for years, who now drive and swear by their Maxwells.

Each year they used to buy a different make, trying to find a car which would suit them exactly.

When the 1915 Maxwell "Wonder Car"—with its 17 new features and new low price of $695, was announced—these "motor wise" men began investigating it.

They didn't take our word or anybody's word for it—they looked into it themselves.

They found the Maxwell to be a handsome, powerful, easy-riding car.

They compared it with cars that sell at double the Maxwell's price. They found that the Maxwell contained every worth-while up-to-date high-priced car feature.

They tested the Maxwell on hills and on the level on really tough roads.

They made it prove its ability to run at low cost over all sorts of roads.

Then they began buying and talking about the Maxwell.

To-day 38,000 enthusiastic people are driving these Maxwells. Of these a great big percentage owned other makes of cars before they bought their Maxwells.

Use your common sense when you buy your automobile. Don't be talked into an extravagant car or a car that hasn't had the "acid test" of time.

Don't let them experiment at your expense.

Read This List of Expensive Features. The 1915 Maxwell Has These Features And Many Others.

Attractive Streamline Body
Pure streamline body; graceful crown fenders, with all rivets concealed. All the grace, style and "snap" that you will find in any of the highest priced cars.

A High-Tension Magneto
Nearly all the high priced cars have high tension magnetos. A high tension magneto gives positive ignition. The Simms magneto, with which the Maxwell is equipped, is recognized as one of the best magnetos made.

Left Side Drive—Central Control
Left side steer with gear shifting levers in center of driving compartment—center control—has been accepted by leading makers of expensive automobiles as the safest and most comfortable for the driver; that is why the Maxwell has it. The Maxwell is so easy to drive and control that a child can handle it.

Three-Speed Sliding Gear Transmission
All high priced cars have a sliding gear transmission. It is costly to make, but it is the best. If the motor has the power, sliding gears will pull the car out of any mud or sand. The Maxwell has a three-speed selective sliding gear transmission because Maxwell engineers do not consider any other type to be worthy of the Maxwell car.

Double-Shell Radiator with Shock Absorbing Device

The Maxwell radiator is of handsome design, gracefully curved, and it is built to be trouble proof. It is the expensive double shell type and has ample cooling capacity. The radiator is mounted to the frame by means of a shock absorbing device on each side, which relieves the radiator of all twists and distortions of the frame, caused by roughness of the road. The shock absorbing device also minimizes the possibility of radiator leaks.

The Roomy Full 5-Passenger Body Adjustable Front Seat

The 1915 Maxwell has a full grown 5-passenger body. The front seat is adjustable. You can move it three inches forward or backward. This makes the car really comfortable for the driver. No cramped legs for tall people or uncomfortable reaching for short people. Most drivers' seats are made to fit anyone—so fit no one.

Low "Up-keep" Carburetor

The carburetor used on the Maxwell was especially designed for it after long and severe tests under every conceivable condition. Economy tests conducted by hundreds of dealers and owners in different sections of the country have proved its efficiency, its quick response to throttle and its extremely low consumption of gasoline. It has been termed the "low up-keep" carburetor.

Irreversible Steering Gear

The greatest margin of safety has been provided in the steering gear of the 1915 Maxwell. The Maxwell irreversible steering mechanism is of the expensive worm-and-gear type and its superiority over every other type lies in its many adjustments. At no time is more than a fourth of the bearing surface of the gear which operates the worm in use. When needed, a new bearing surface may be had by adjusting the gear a quarter of a turn. In short, the Maxwell steering gear has four times the adjustment of any other kind.

Heavy Car Comfort

What surprises most people is the smooth, buoyant riding qualities of the Maxwell. The spring suspension of the 1915 Maxwell is the same costly combination of long semi-elliptical front springs and the three-quarter elliptic rear springs that is used on most heavy weight, high priced cars.

The Maxwell offers you every essential of the highest priced machines at a fifth of their cost.

One Size of Tire—Anti-Skids on Rear

The Maxwell car is one of the easiest cars in the world to drive. Maxwell owners carry but one spare tire and but one size of spare tubes. Economical 30 inch x 3 1/2 inch tires are used all around.

A famous make of anti-skid tires are supplied on rear wheels.

A Dependable Electric Starter

For $35 extra, you can have your Maxwell delivered equipped with the famous Stange-Hill electric starter. This starter is efficient, trouble proof and easily operated.

And the Maxwell is completely equipped from the clear vision, ventilating windshield at the front to the spare tire carrier at the rear. When you buy a Maxwell you have nothing extra to buy.

The Maxwell Company's Guarantee of Service to Maxwell Owners

No other automobile is backed by a more reliable service than that guaranteed every Maxwell owner. More than 2,000 Maxwell dealers—in every part of this country—are always ready to give expert advice, to make adjustments, and to supply new parts at reasonable prices.

This splendid Maxwell dealer service organization is perfected and completed by the chain of Maxwell owned and Maxwell operated Service Branches. Sixteen great Maxwell Service Stations are so located throughout the country that a Maxwell dealer can supply any part for an owner within a few hours if not in his stock. Maxwell Service is one of the great advantages enjoyed by Maxwell owners.

Order a Maxwell from us now, and when you want it delivered, we will give you your car—not an excuse on delivery day

A spectacle that is both bewildering and thrilling is "Neptune's Daughter." This is the greatest film drama played by Annette Kellerman.

Known the world over as "the perfect woman" and the most graceful high diver and swimmer in the Eastern Hemisphere. In presenting Miss Kellerman in the gorgeous spectacle "Neptune's Daughter" the management of the Majestic Theatre is affording the people an opportunity to see the most elaborate film drama ever taken from life. This picture enjoyed a successful run of six months in New York and has just finished a run of over four months at the Majestic Theatre, Buffalo, N. Y., where they turned away hundreds at every performance.

The play is woven from the adventures of Neptune's Daughter, who visits a Kingdom by the seaside to avenge the death of her sister at the hands of fishermen. The story of how she meets the king in the woods and falls in love with him and succeeds in fulfilling her mission without slaying the ruler is told in dramatic form.

Sick Women Made Well

Reliable evidence is abundant that women are constantly being restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The many testimonial letters that we are continually publishing in the newspapers—hundreds of them—are all genuine, true and unsolicited expressions of heartfelt gratitude for the freedom from suffering that has come to these women solely through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Money could not buy nor any kind of influence obtain such recommendations; you may depend upon it that any testimonial we publish is honest and true—if you have any doubt of this write to the women whose true names and addresses are always given, and learn for yourself.

Read this one from Mrs. Waters:

CAMDEN, N.J.—"I was sick for two years with nervous spells, and my kidneys were affected. I had a doctor all the time and used a galvanic battery, but nothing did me any good. I was not able to go to bed, but spent my time on a couch or in a sleeping chair, and soon became almost a skeleton. Finally my doctor went away for his health, and my husband heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me some. In two months I got relief and now I am like a new woman and am at my usual weight. I recommend your medicine to every one and so does my husband."—Mrs. LILLIE WATERS, 530 Mechanic Street, Camden, N.J.

From Hanover, Penn.

HANOVER, PA.—"I was a very weak woman and suffered from bearing down pains and backache. I had been married over four years and had no children. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound proved an excellent remedy for it made me a well woman. After taking a few bottles my pains disappeared, and we now have one of the finest boy babies you ever saw."—Mrs. C. A. RICKHOFF, R.F.D., No. 5, Hanover, Pa.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman continue to suffer without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others—why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health. Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

BEST BOXING SHOW OF SEASON SCHEDULED AT RINK SATURDAY NIGHT

The Charleroi Boxing club has arranged to stage what it is believed will prove the best boxing show of the season at the Charleroi rink next Saturday night. In the main bout Fritz Elsner, the champion lightweight of the valley will meet Young Sharkey of Pittsburgh. Among some of Sharkey's victories appear a number of well known fighters to local fans, such as K. A. Brennan, Kid Levo and Young Goldie. The semi-final will bring together Ed Nevil, of Donora and Louis Thames of Webster. These two boys have met before and their battles have been the talk of the valley. Eddie Hazel of Monongahela and Charley Wimler, of Fairhaven will box in the second bout.

YOUTH IS SHOT DOWN

him and remained at his side until he died.

The boys say they were out for a walk when they saw two men and two girls walking ahead. They decided to tease the strolling lovers and followed them at short range. The two couples left the road and struck out for the fields and still the boys followed them. Finally they climbed a hill and Bissell well in the lead of the other boys followed them up the hill. On the way up he found a spring and knelt to get a drink. As he stopped over the shot rang out and he fell forward, jumped up and walked a few yards and fell again.

The identity of the girls who were with the supposed murdered is suspected at Canonsburg but not positively known. Since there are four persons who know who killed Bissell it is believed by the authorities that the identity of the culprit cannot long remain a secret.

Bert Bissell was one of the best known and most popular young men of Canonsburg and vicinity. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bissell of White Lawn Terrace and was an employee of the W. S. George Pottery. In addition to his popularity as a young man he had won some distinction as pitcher for the George Pottery team in the Industrial baseball league of Canonsburg.

Making Inspection.

A. G. Mitchell, superintendent of the Monongahela division of the Pennsylvania Railroad is making an inspection trip over the division today. He is accompanied by a number of Philadelphia, Pa., officials.

Ever since starting in the game, Hazel has been winning his bouts with ease. Wimler will be the toughest proposition he has ever stacked up against. The opening bout will be between G. W. Batton of Fayette City and Ed. Paluso of Charleroi.
